Benefits of Membership

OCDLA works for you and the rights of the accused through continuing legal education, legislative action, formal and informal networking and professional support services.

Capital Defenders

The Capital Defenders sponsor special death penalty seminars and serve as a forum for the exchange of information. Capital Defender dues help pay for the wiki site at the Oregon Capital Resource Center, support CLE scholarships, maintain an expert witness database and the development of a resource directory. Call OCDLA for more information.

CLE Programs—The Latest in Law and Strategy

OCDLA takes a leadership role in providing continuing legal education on criminal defense issues by providing seminars that give practical information about the law, trial practice and forensic science. OCDLA publishes a CLE catalog that lists written and audio materials available for MCLE credit spanning five years. It is updated every six months.

Criminal Law Newsletter

This cross-indexed newsletter organizes and summarizes the most recent U.S. Supreme Court, Oregon Court of Appeals and Oregon Supreme Court decisions pertaining to criminal law. Subscribers receive 24 issues per year, with a cumulative, alphabetized year-end index of cases organized by subject. The annual subscription is only $80.

Expert Witness Database

OCDLA regularly updates its expert witness library. Contains reference information about hundreds of experts. Call or email the OCDLA office for expert witness referrals or to see how you might be listed (nonlawyers only).

Legislative Representation

OCDLA sponsors legislation, presents the defense perspective, opposes efforts to dilute the Oregon Constitution and Bill of Rights, and publishes a biennial Legislative Analysis of Criminal and Juvenile Laws.

Listserve

An email listserve, known as the Pond, designed exclusively for members. Send an email to: info@ocdla.org to sign up.

Amicus Curiae Committee Guidelines

(adopted 9/16/95)

The following procedure and guidelines have been established for OCDLA Amicus Curiae Committee requests and assistance:

I. Procedure

- A. A written request for amicus curiae assistance should be made by letter or fax to the committee chair. The request should include (1) a concise statement of the case, including its procedural background, the legal issues involved, the reasons why the case has broad importance, and the reasons for OCDLA intervention; and (2) supporting documentation—such as appellate briefs, court opinions, and the petition for review—to enable the committee to fully analyze the request. See generally ORAP 9.07. Requesting counsel may wish to initially phone any committee member to discuss the case and the appropriate contents to be included in the request.
- B. The request will be photocopied and mailed to committee members for their prompt review. If the committee decides that amicus intervention is appropriate, the chair will consult with the OCDLA President to determine whether the case raises a controversial issue requiring a full review and decision by the Board of Directors.
- C. After a final decision is reached, the requesting counsel will be notified of the decision.
- D. The requesting attorney and the committee shall work together to locate an OCDLA member with substantial appellate experience who is willing to serve as the amicus author. The amicus attorney shall consult with the committee chair before completing the amicus brief. The amicus attorney shall file copies of the amicus application, amicus brief, and the court's decision with the OCDLA office.

II. Guidelines

- A. The committee will consider the following factors in deciding whether to enter as amicus curiae in a proceeding:
  1. The importance of the case to OCDLA goals.
  2. Whether the case will advance OCDLA's special values including:
    - a. A strong and independent defense bar.
    - b. The right of effective assistance of counsel for accused persons.
    - c. The defense of accused persons subjected to public prejudice.
  3. The extent of OCDLA membership support for the positions to be advocated.
  4. The complexity of the case.
  5. Whether the claimed error is preserved.
  6. The anticipated quality of direct advocacy by the requesting attorney.
  7. Whether the case will have precedential value.
  8. Other relevant factors set forth in ORAP 9.07.
- B. Absent unusual circumstances, OCDLA will defer appearing as amicus curiae until a case reaches the Oregon Supreme Court or the United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit.
